U.S. Ambassador Kristie A. Kenney greets students of Basak Elementary School during her recent visit to the Islamic City of Marawi. Ambassador Kenney inaugurated two new classrooms, several refurbished school buildings, and a stage built through the humanitarian assistance partnership between the Philippine and United States armed forces as part of the 24th annual Balikatan 2008. The Balikatan 2008 humanitarian assistance programs in Marawi included free medical, dental and optometric care to over 1500 local residents. (GEM)
